

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: David Funderburk
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, December 31, 2000 6:44 PM
Subject: La Luna Concert

Hi John,

About 3 weeks ago, I was about to go to bed, but decided to scan the television channels one last time. I happened to come across a public broadcasting station that was showing the La Luna concert. After 1 minute, I was completely mesmerized. I had never heard of Sarah Brightman or her La Luna CD. I was getting tired, so I decided to go to bed thinking the PBS station would certainly replay such an incredible concert over and over again. Unfortunately, they did not.

I have gone to every PBS web site in my area, but cannot find any mention of Sarah Brightman or the La Luna concert. What I really want is the video of the La Luna concert I saw on television. I have searched everywhere for the video, but again I had no luck. Do you know if any such video exists?

Thanks for any help.

David Funderburk

From: Frank Persico
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, January 11, 2001 2:03 PM
Subject: Your review of Sarah!!!!

John: thanks for the superb review you gave of Sarah Brightman....
i had the good fortune of having been in the 3rd row center stage orchestra for her concert here in Philadelphia back on Sept. 27, 2000.....i do not know if you have ever seen her perform, but there are no words to describe her in person....her voice and her stage presence is absolutely astoundingwhen she began to sing the opening notes of "La Lune" which is the French opening on her new cd, i could not believe my ears....i was in absolute awe of her for nearly 2 hours that she was on stage.....she is so fantastic that she truly surpasses the quality of her own cd sounds....i will be seeing her again when she comes to the sovereign arena in Trenton on march 29, 2001.....if you ever get the chance to see her in concert, i strongly urge you to go....you will truly walk away talking to yourself....i know that i did.....
frank!!!!!!!!!!!!

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Steve Gazzera
To: John Iverson
Sent: Wednesday, April 11, 2001 7:58 AM
Subject: Next SB tour

John, thanks for your input on SB. I saw her in SF for the first time in March. Loved it. I live in San Jose, CA. When she tours again, I think I will go see more shows on the west coast leg of her tour. I am a true fan now. Love her voice. She is tremendous. I am collecting her music, and listen to her daily. I have the Eden video, excellent, and am waiting for the La Luna DVD. How does a fan get to visit with her backstage after the show?? Any thoughts? Have you met her?
Thx. Steve.

From: Jeffrey Palmer
To: John Iverson
Sent: Wednesday, May 2, 2001 8:43 PM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

Dear John,
I am a thirteen year old boy named Jeffrey Palmer who loves Sarah Brightman too! She is definitely my favourite singer. My favourite album of hers is La Luna. Fly is my second. I just recently bought her One Night In Eden and La Luna concerts on video. Feel free to email me. Thanks!
Sincerely,
Jeffrey

From: Ms. Kui
To: John Iverson
Sent: Friday, June 1, 2001 2:11 AM
Subject: Your Sarah Brightman Website

Hello!
John, you have created a lovely website which truly reflects Sarah Brightman. I appreciate all the work and time you put into it. I found your site on a search through Google, just for your info. Mahalo (thank you) John for making cyberspace just a little more magical and worth visiting!
Aloha, Kui

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Georgia Philbrick
To: John Iverson
Sent: Friday, June 1, 2001 9:32 PM
Subject: Sarah

Hello;

Just a note to say I'm a total fan of Sarah Brightman also; an older lady and have never considered myself of fan of anyone's.... until I saw and heard the most beautiful of all ladies. I need not try to explain the emotion and sheer pleasure she brings to those who adore her.... What a wonderful gift from God to allow this Angel to be here on earth to grace and bless with her style and exquisite beauty. I'm a true fan; guess I waited over 50 years for the best to come along, and so glad I found her! Thanks for the webpage, it's very nice... think I'll go play some of her songs as I look it over.

Georgia

From: Gina Welch
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, July 10, 2001 3:45 PM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

I adore Sarah Brightman's awesome, soaring vocals as well. I am also a fan of Kathleen Battle's (famous coloratura), and the lesser known Alicia Welch (another classically trained coloratura). You can find one of Alicia's recordings at www.stephfranmusic.com, and you can find Kathleen's numerous recordings all over the web.

Sincerely,

Georgina

P.S. Your website is beautiful

From: Joshua New
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, August 14, 2001 1:47 PM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

I too am a Sarah Brightman fan and have found myself utterly touched by her music while in a large transition in my life. I wanted to send her an email personally, but I doubt she troubles much with that.

Joshua New

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: John Jacka
To: John Iverson
Sent: Friday, August 10, 2001 3:02 PM
Subject: Angel

John,

I visited your Sarah website and was pleased to see that it was so well maintained. I had a feeling Angel's birthday was coming up and discovered my feeling was right when I hit your page.

I discovered Sarah on PBS late last year and was absolutely taken under her spell. I usually listened to talk radio, but if I did listen to music, it was always rock and roll. Being from Lubbock, Texas originally, "The Home of Rock and Roll", I had pretty much given up on trying to appreciate operatic types. When I heard Sarah though, that all changed in a dramatic fashion. A married couple that I know in Detroit invited me there for Christmas last year and, of course, I packed a couple of her discs with my other essentials. When they heard her, they fell in love with her as well, and soon developed there own collection of CD's. They were die-hard rock and rollers too.

Early in March I found out she was playing in Detroit at the Masonic Temple. I left a message on my friends' machine telling them they were crazy if they didn't already have tickets. I got a call the next day from Bill. He said his wife had heard my message and she surprised him with, not two, but three tickets and third was mine if I wanted it. I booked a flight that night for Sarah's weekend. It was the best investment I ever made. She was gorgeous in every way.

I never dreamed I could get tears in my eyes at a concert but she moved me so.

My favorites are, in no particular order, Nella Fantasia, Lascia Chio Pianga, La Califfa and, because I love snorkling in the USVI so much, I can always relate to Captain Nemo, Only An Ocean Away, Island, and have a particularly fond memory attached to When It Rains In America. Keep up the good work and I look forward to visiting your page frequently. Thank you. (I was glad to hear about the upcoming CD, I try to keep up with her but hadn't read about that yet.)

Cheers,
John in Houston,TX

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Melissa Carvell
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, July 29, 2001 12:13 AM
Subject: Sarah Brightman photos

Dear Friend

I was just looking at your wonderful Sarah Brightman site on the internet. I loved the story of your meeting with Sarah. I was wondering if you would consider selling my family copies of your Sarah pictures. I have a 7 year old little girl (India) "future opera star" who worships her. Anyway if you could write and let me know we would love to hear from you.

Thank you
Melissa Carvell

From: Sherry Brown
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, December 13, 2001 9:24 AM
Subject: Lyrics

Hi!

Have been listening to Sarah's new CD and would love to have the English translation to the song, "Alhambra"! Some of her songs absolutely speak to my soul. Her "Un Jour Il Viendra" is another one that is gorgeous.

Thanks.
Sherry Brown

From: Brittany West
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, January 27, 2002 4:28 PM
Subject: Question about Sarah Brightman

Hello, my name is Brittany. I just recently discovered Sarah and love her. Anyway, I downloaded this song to see if I liked her and it was called Brahm's Lullaby. And it was a lullaby, but it sounded nothing like the other two I downloaded of her. I really liked the other two and this lullaby wasn't bad but it didn't sound like her at all. Do you by any chance have any idea if she sang a song by this title that was a lullaby, first in English then in some other language. Thank you so much. Love the website.

Brittany

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Rainbow
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, March 12, 2002 8:32 PM
Subject: GREETINGS

Hi John,
It's so good to receive your greetings. You've really done a wonderful job. I've browsed so many Sarah sites, but your comments and reviews touch me deeply. You're such a great writer and you use your heart to feel Sarah's music.

In Feb., my husband bought me Sarah's Classics. Again I was deeply touched by her music. I couldn't help crying when the song "Winter light" coming. The song reminds me of so many things in my life, happiness, sadness, hope, and disappointment. I played that song again and again, and my tears flooded on my face. I'm grateful for her to bring us so beautiful feelings.

Sarah and her team don't do any promotion in New Zealand, but she is very popular here. I really wish she could consider about coming to New Zealand. She has so many fans in Australia and New Zealand is a beautiful place to visit.

That's for sure I'll be Sarah's fan forever.

Kind regards,
Rainbow

From: Addison Family
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, June 20, 2002 8:10 PM
Subject: Classics Video

Hi! I think your website is wonderful! Would it be possible for you to e-mail me when you find out when the Classics - The Best of Sarah Brightman video is coming out?

Thank-you!
Carla Addison

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Tom R
To: John Iverson
Sent: Wednesday, June 5, 2002 2:01 PM
Subject: Seeks John's Feedback

Hi John,

I visited your website. My friend Jim in the Boston area (USA) is a big Sarah fan. I must admit, I'm not an opera fan but I can at least tolerate "A Question of Honour" because it sort of mixed opera and pop. I really like her versions of "Deliver Me" and "Moon River." Jim sent me her La Luna concert video to watch, and again, my favorite three performances are the songs I mentioned, especially "Deliver Me."

On your website, you wrote about "Deliver Me" A very spiritual and soulful song with much meaning and wisdom. So very nicely delivered by Sarah and her choir. This song has a mystery about it that makes it a great tune. What kind of mystery are you thinking? Do you think "Deliver Me" could be both a spiritual tune AND a love song about finding someone? A type of song that someone could define it more than one way? For example, "The Dance" by Garth Brooks is one that you can either perceive it as a song about losing someone by death OR two people who went their separate ways in life, or the like. Garth's video for the song was about death, though. What do you think? Could it be a spiritual tune and/or a love song? I'd sure like to hear from you soon. Thanks!

Tom

From: Amy
To: John Iverson
Sent: Monday, July 15, 2002 8:57 PM
Subject: SARAH TALK

Hi John

Wow, it was so nice to hear from you, and what a nice email! Well it is good to know that Sarah truly is a wonderfully nice person. I never believed that rumor for a minute! Just her presence on stage makes her seem as if she is warm and loving. Yes, I am from MN... near Minneapolis. Actually my aunt is from Winnipeg and I have been to the Folk Festival up there before; such fun. Sadly, I (have) never been to a concert of Sarah's before. I am a "new" fan I guess you could say... got to know her from Andrew Lloyd Webber's music. I would love to go to a concert one day though! If you hear of any, let me know! :) Thanks again for the nice email, and please keep in touch! :)

Amy

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Ed Cardenas
To: John Iverson
Sent: Friday, August 23, 2002 10:37 AM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

Hi John,
Thank you so much for your website.
I am putting together a crossword puzzle for some of my friends. We are all Sarah Brightman fans. We update each other on any thing of interest. Do you have any personal info on her about her family etc; things I could add to the puzzle? My challenge will be to send the puzzle to my friends so they can solve online.

From: Marjorie
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, September 26, 2002 2:04 PM
Subject: A comment about your Sarah Brightman website from another fan :-)

Dear John,
Hi! My name is Marjorie, and I am in the USA. You may not know me, but I just wanted to let you know what I think about your great website :) I was fortunate to look at your amazing website through a friend who gave me the link. Your website is just wonderful! I wanted to say that it must have been a truly wonderful experience to have met Sarah Brightman. She is indeed a charming, wonderful, sweet, and gracious lady. I had the opportunity to have met her myself, not exactly the way you did, but I met her at a CD signing for her La Luna album at a Barnes & Noble bookstore which she was doing two days before I saw her concert here in California. She was very sweet, and signed my La Luna CD. Oh yes I took a photo with her. Then two days later after I saw her concert, I was standing outside of the stage door of the venue with several fans, in the freezing cold October chill, when she came out. She signed my program, and my friend who came with me took pictures.
I have been a long time fan since she did Phantom, and I have most of her albums. Have you ever visited her forums? If you haven't, you should, as there are lots of other fans who are all very nice people.
Thanks for reading my email, and I hope I can hear from you soon.
Sincerely,
Marjorie

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Lee Crowe
To: John Iverson
Sent: Friday, October 4, 2002 5:09 PM
Subject: Sarah

Hi John,
Janice here, I seem to have difficulty purchasing The Very Best of 1990-2000 of Sarah Brightman. Have you heard any news regards this? I must compliment you on this website, take care John....
Cheers Janice

From: Vaughan van Dyk
To: John Iverson
Sent: Saturday, November 16, 2002 2:57 AM
Subject: FPWeb :: link partnership

Hi John!
I'm the maintainer/writer of FPWeb :: The Frank Peterson Website, the only site on the net exclusively devoted to him. I only happened upon your site today and was very impressed with your detailed reviews and comments about Sarah's albums. FPWeb was relaunched at the end of October with a completely new design and structure, and reviews for albums. However I have been wanting to start including/linking to other people's reviews of his work as well, and was wondering if you wouldn't mind me linking directly to your page-reviews (with full credit of course ;-)), from the various detailed album discographies on my site? If it is okay, I will be starting to do this for FPWeb's next phase of development when even more content will be appearing on the site. I could ask also whether you would possibly mind adding a link to my site on yours?
Thanking you.
Regards
Vaughan

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Big Boy
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, December 22, 2002 6:48 PM
Subject: Sarah Brightman Fan In Australia

Hi John,

My name is Andrew and I love Sarah Brighthman's music. I discovered your website by accident and I loved it! Bravo to you for the good work!

In Australia, Andrea Bocelli had been more popular than Sarah until last year when "Classics" was released. Sarah finally got the recognition she deserves here. This album has been certified platinum and counting until now.

I discovered Sarah from a friend of mine who introduced me to her with her album "Eden". It has become my all time favourite album and I think it's the best album she ever made. Since then, I fell in love with Sarah and I collect all her albums (all of them you have), also the DVDs.

It's nice to know that you also are a radio presenter. Is that right? That means, you have a facility to introduce Sarah to many people.

Did you know that there was a program on PBS channel in the US about "Classics, Sarah Brightman" something, and I heard it's very good. Have you seen it?

Last, I just wonder if you ever heard Sarah (sing) "Regnava Nel Silenzio (Donizetti)", and also her other early works and rare songs that you might not even heard before? If not, then just let me know and I can tell you which ones.

Regards,
Andrew

From: Tausha
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, January 12, 2003 11:19 AM
Subject: Hi John

You do not know me..but my name is Tausha..& I came across your page a long while back & said that when my page was done I would want to put yours as my site of the month! Well I have finished my page & have added your sites as my site of the month.. I hope you do not mind seeing that I did not ask..but I just love your story & Sarah pics.. If you are wanting me to remove your site please let me know.. If you would like to see what I am talking about you can see my site.. it is www.geocities.com/tausha719 I hope that you enjoy it I know that others are enjoying looking at your page.. take care.. hope to hear from you soon
Tausha

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Vera (lalunas)

To: John Iverson

Sent: Sunday, August 3, 2003 8:47 AM

Subject: Sarah Brightman

Hi John,

I very badly know the English language and consequently I use the computer translator. Beforehand I'm sorry.

My name is Vera. I live in Russia. And I adore Sarah Brightman! Yesterday has found out your wonderful site. And I was shocked... You so have perfectly expressed yours thoughts about mine Diva, that I was very much touched. She is really unusually beautiful and incredibly talented!!! In my country she, alas, a little to whom is known. But, that less I have found the friend and Sarah's big fan with whom we communicate through the Internet. Sarah I know and love five years. After on our TV have shown concert record of her duet with Andrea Bocelli. Then I have found out what exactly she sang in "The Phantom of the Opera". I adore her duets with Michael Crawford and I think that they were the best Erik and Christina in the most beautiful show of XX century. And it is a pity to me that they more never sing together.

Always with the big pleasure I look her video and I listen to CDs. She really has a magic voice and she a most beautiful singer in the World.

HAREM - a wonderful album. Amazing music! Besides her east image and sunburn of a skin are great!

Many thanks for your wonderful site. I have received huge pleasure from "travel" on its pages!

If you will find time to answer me, I shall be very glad.

Good luck!

Vera.

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Lucy
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, December 30, 2003 8:25 PM
Subject: Meeting with Ms. Brightman

Dear Mr. Iverson,
I greatly enjoy visiting your beautiful website and reading up about Sarah Brightman. I too, think that she is an incredible artist and I have for a few years been a huge fan of hers. Your website does great honour to her and I always look forward to visiting it. I read about your meeting with Ms. Brightman - wow, that must have been phenomenal!
Currently I'm studying music performance at McGill in Montreal, and naturally Ms. Brightman's work has inspired me greatly and opened me up to all kinds of genres. I will be seeing her Harem concert on the 2nd of February, (I'm sooo excited for it!!) and more than anything, I would LOVE to meet her and especially tell her how she has influenced my pursuit of a musical career, and how moving her music is! Is there anyone who I could get in touch with ahead of time to guarantee a possibly of meeting Ms. Brightman? Any advice that you could give me would be greatly appreciated!
Sincerely,
Lucy Armstrong

From: David Galdamez
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, March 18, 2004 11:15 PM
Subject: Harem in Las Vegas

Dear John,
What a pleasure it is to have found your site. I have loved Sarah since I first saw her, by accident, on a PBS special. I went right out to buy one of her CD's which happened to be "La Luna". I loved it and have been loving everything else she has done. The highlight of it all was to finally see her live in her current tour "Harem" in Las Vegas. What a beautiful concert, but what else could I expect from this goddess? Thank you for all you are sharing with all of us.
David

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: G W
To: John Iverson
Sent: Wednesday, March 24, 2004 11:23 PM
Subject: A question about DVD...

Hi John

I just love your site...Sarah would be just thrilled with it I am sure.
I spotted the Harem DVD in the store the other day and thought it to be her tour DVD...but no such luck.

I was wondering if all the tracks that are listed are in fact videos with Sarah in them... or are the videos just travel tours set to her music..??.

And one more question... how long does the whole DVD run from start to finish..?.

I have some really wonderful pictures I took of Sarah after her EDEN concert if you would like some...also some that were taken a number of years ago while she toured with the L/W music tour.

Thanks for any help you might offer with my questions.. cheers Greg :)

From: linda luedtke
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, May 30, 2004 10:34 AM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

Hi, I see that you are a true Sarah Brightman fan, as I am. We saw Sarah's Harem tour at the MGM in Las Vegas in March. It was spectacular, something we will never forget. The whole show was being filmed for a DVD. We had seats next to the stage and there was a gentlemen from MGM seated at the end of every isle to make sure that no one got up during the filming. I was wondering if you had any idea when this DVD would be released? I have been checking Amazon and most of the music and video stores trying to find it. I'm not sure where I could get this info. Have any ideas?

Thanks for your time and the great website.

Sincerely,
Linda

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Joe Ciufoli
To: John Iverson
Sent: Thursday, August 12, 2004 10:31 PM
Subject: Brightman

John,
Congratulations on a great website, very interesting reading. You are a lucky man to have had the opportunity to meet Sarah in person. She comes across as a very caring down to earth person. A rare thing in to days entertainment industry. I at least was lucky enough to be seated just 6 rows from the stage during her Adelaide/South Australia performance.-Outstanding Evening.
I own many of her CD's and to date all the DVD's. Two Albums which I am extremely interested in are Harem World Tour and Fly2 neither available in Australia and from your website appear to be only available at concert tours. In Adelaide the only album on sale was Harem.
Question is when do you think these 2 albums will be available or can they be obtained over the web?
Keep up the good work.
Kind Regards
Joe Ciufoli
Adelaide / Australia

From: DUTCHFUZZY
To: John Iverson
Sent: Sunday, August 22, 2004 8:08 PM
Subject: Sarah Brightman

I too have had my life changed by Sarah Brightman. I wish all of the world could feel what goes through my heart every time I listen to her. Even today, while I was pumping gas, a woman came over and heard the music coming out of my car, it was Chanson d'Enfance, she said she never heard anything so beautiful in her entire life. I told her that Sarah's music would inspire, fall deeply into her heart and she will never hear any human voice better than that of Sarah Brightman. I have seen her four times in concert and met her twice. I was tongue tied the first time. She is so sweet. Every time I listen to her music it's as if I have been in heaven. And if heaven is like that nothing could be better. Thanks for letting me tell you what she has meant to me.
Judy

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Zina Paley
To: John Iverson
Sent: Saturday, November 6, 2004 9:27 PM
Subject: Lovely Website!

Hello John,
(Hope I'm not too forward).
I just came across your website, and had to email you to say how lovely it is! It is so nice to find another Winnipeg fan, with such devotion to Ms. Brightman!
You were so lucky to get a chance to meet her. She comes across as a very down-to-earth lady. I was at both concerts too, and I really hope she comes back with her next tour to our new arena.
Now that I've found a local website, I will be visiting regularly.
Thank you for taking time and energy creating it!
With much appreciation,
Zina

From: Tony
To: John Iverson
Sent: Saturday, February 5, 2005 10:35 PM
Subject: many thanks

Dear John,
I've only just started listening to Sarah, and upon reading your web page with tears in my eyes, can I say I am 6 foot 3 and built like a brick out house, I don't as a rule cry. Thank god my daughter did not come in. But reading your story was very warming. I sent you an email to ask what music was playing on your web page... no words can describe how I feel listening to that track. Many thanks John.
Tony.....Sarah fan..

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: David Delcroix

To: John Iverson

Sent: Wednesday, February 16 2005 1:59 PM

Subject: a question about Sarah's CD

Hi John

My name is David Delcroix and I'm from France, near Paris next to a city called Fontainebleau. I've recently discovered Sarah Brightman and I keep roaming the web for info about her and have gotten quite an extensive collection of her recordings and loving it more and more.

First, congratulations on your beautiful yet sober website. I love the layout and also your personal opinions about the music, the woman and your personal experience with her.

I've just received the Harem Tour CD that I ordered on the website and what a treat!!!! The CD is signed and some of the tracks are just plain beautiful. My Imagination I really love so far and Voyage Voyage is a very beautiful rendition as well.

I had a question for you and was wondering whether you know how to get hold of Fly II. I read a lot about that one but it seems to be very hard to find now and is not sold on the official website. I like to buy my stuff and I would like to buy it if possible or in the worst case scenario get a copy of it. Can you help me?

I have a slight tendency to favour her poppier stuff but she's got me to enjoy opera more than I could have ever thought I would. She really is amazing and her Harem album is totally breathtaking! The Harem song was done in French a couple of years back by a singer called H el ene S egara "Elle, Tu L'aimes" that was quite a success and of course people think about that whenever I make them listen to the melody (that is until it turns totally dance !!!). I also am happy to have "converted" to her music two of my colleagues.

I also have an Australian friend of mine working for ABC that interviewed her for her Harem tour and his interview is on line if you are interested in listening to it. Let me know.

I guess that's enough for introducing me, keep up the great work !!!

David Delcroix

Dimancheville, France

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Dorothy Knudson
To: John Iverson
Sent: Monday, March 21 2005 12:41 PM
Subject: your website

Hello John,
I'm Dorothy. I just explored your website dedicated to Sarah Brightman. You have expressed in words what I have felt for her in my heart for years. I appreciated that you described on your website your brief interview with Ms. Brightman. What an incredible, and truly indescribable, experience it must have been for you to meet the greatest soprano in the world! Have you had an opportunity of meeting her again since her La Luna World Tour in 2001?
With appreciation for your work,
Dorothy

From: Roy
To: John Iverson
Sent: Wednesday, April 13 2005 03:26 AM
Subject: about sarah site

You got the best web site I've ever seen about Sarah. You are very special to do this web page. Thank you for everything. I'm waiting for new stuff on your website. She is the best singer ever.
Roy

John's Sarah Brightman Page Emails

From: Andrew Keszthelyi
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, May 17 2005 10:23 AM
Subject: about some info

Hi There,

I'm Andrew, 20 (odd but true) and like you I am a huge fan of Sarah Brightman, she is in fact my 2nd all time favorite artist (Mariah Carey being the 1st). I have all of their CDs and DVDs but I've been trying to find a way to buy the Harem Tour CD (Not the live one in Las Vegas), but I can't seem to find it anywhere. Can you help me? You know any website stores that I can go to to get that CD?

Maybe it's inaccurate, but I've read that Sarah only sold around 20,000,000 albums worldwide. That is a lot but she's barely known here in America, especially among the youths like me. I'm wondering if I'm like the only one who likes her and every time I ask around I get a "don't know" look instead, on few exceptions where all they would know is "Time To Say Goodbye". All I see on mainstream music media TV (MTV, VH1) is rap, rock, so-called reality shows :-D and more rap). If Mariah's going to be really out there and shown to everyone why not Sarah? They both have a lot in common (Music world of their own all in the form of Pop, Father's death, a sister, being able to shift their voice with utter magnificence). If there are people like me who's into music like Sarah Brightman (Gregorian, Lesiëm, Magna Canta etc.) it's very rare.

I'm just trying to understand why the youth majority here only listen to and go by what they're exposed to rather than keeping an open mind. It's very interesting, but at least there are people like us who appreciate melodic, beautiful music of all genres (rap included if you want to hear "Manau"). Please E-mail me back, I'd like to hear from you.

From: Irwin Brown
To: John Iverson
Sent: Tuesday, October 25 2005 6:30 PM
Subject: SARAH BRIGHTMAN INQUIRY

As you say, she is certainly "The Angel of Music." I have seen her only with Andrea Boccelli on his DVD and VCR, "A Night in Tuscany." Their closing duet stuns me every time I view it. It comes at about 1:21 on the tape and sometimes I go right to it before I view Boccelli from the beginning, anticipating that duet, and then watching (and hearing) it a time or two more. When she builds up to that tremendous high note she hits in "Time to Say Goodbye" brings me to sobs (no tears) because it is so intense for me. Now, I've got to get more of her music on DVD, especially any operatic passages she has recorded.

Irwin Brown